HIGHLIGHTS from our WEB SITE

What's at the Library?

Locate library-owned material and track your account on our home page using GIL, the library's online catalog.

Databases and Journals

Hundreds of electronic databases and thousands of electronic journal titles are accessible from our home page. Among these is GALILEO, a popular set of research databases for magazines, journals, encyclopedias and more.

What's at other Georgia libraries?

Borrow books from any University System of Georgia Library using the GIL Universal Catalog and GIL Express at <https://giluc.usg.edu>.

Borrowing From Libraries Worldwide

Request material from libraries worldwide using ILLiad, the library's online interlibrary loan service, at www.library.gsu.edu/ill. A valid Georgia State e-mail address is required.

Print and Digital Course Reserves

Digital material on reserve is available through ERes at reserves.gsu.edu. Find call numbers for print reserves in the GIL online catalog. Non-digitized reserves are at the Library South (LS) 2 circulation desk.

Research Guides

Resources and strategies for researching specific topics are at www.library.gsu.edu/research.

Ask A Librarian

Get answers to reference questions at www.library.gsu.edu/askalibrarian through live chat (11 a.m.–5 p.m., Mon.–Thurs.), or e-mail.

Special Collections

Descriptions of the unique material in this department and some digitized holdings are online at www.library.gsu.edu/spcoll.
